Laurent Vernerey

Executive Vice-President, North America Operations

Schneider Electric is pleased to announce that Laurent Vernerey has been named Executive Vice President of North America Operations, with responsibility for the company's operations in the US, Canada and Mexico. Laurent has spent over two decades leading Schneider Electric's business strategy in the US and abroad, most recently as Executive Vice President of the company's End User Business. Prior to that, he led the company's IT Business, including the company's successful acquisition of IT business-leader APC, based in West Kingston, RI.

Laurent takes over from Chris Curtis, who will continue to represent Schneider Electric and its mission as Chairman of the National Electrical Manufacturers Association (NEMA).
